Rules & Regulations for All Members

These rules apply to every registered member of Alpha Science Lab, regardless of department, wing, or designation.

1. Membership & Commitment

- Members are expected to remain actively involved in ASL activities for a term specified by the president.
- Membership roles are not permanent and may be changed by the president.
- Members must complete assigned tasks honestly and within deadlines to maintain an active membership status.

2. Attendance & Participation

- Members must participate in frequent meetings, workshops, training sessions, and lab activities.
- ASL will conduct weekly wing-wise meetings on designated days, and a collective meeting of all wings shall be held once every week on a common designated day.
- Attendance will be tracked using Google Sheets, with a warning sent if attendance falls below 50% monthly, and a final warning and possible termination if attendance falls below 20%.
- Prior notice is required in case of absence.

3. Fees

- All members are required to pay a non-refundable BDT 300 membership fee(one-time) and a monthly cash cost of BDT 50 to the treasurer within the first week of the month.
- Timely payment is required to maintain good standing; otherwise, a formal reminder process will be initiated to ensure operational sustainability.

4. Discipline & Professional Conduct

- Members must follow leadership guidance and provide timely updates on all assigned tasks to the relevant authority.
- All members must maintain respectful, ethical, and professional behavior at all times, both within the lab and on online platforms.
- Any form of misconduct, violation of any rules, harassment, or disruptive behavior is strictly prohibited.
- Violation of ASL rules may result in:
 - Verbal warning
 - Written warning
 - Temporary suspension
 - Termination of membership (in severe cases)

5. Secrecy & Confidentiality Policy

- All lab projects, designs, research, plans, documents, strategies, and internal discussions are strictly confidential.
- Members are prohibited from sharing, leaking, publishing, or discussing ASL materials with outsiders without official permission.
- Any form of information leakage, intentional or unintentional, will result in strict disciplinary action, including immediate termination if necessary.

6. Promotion & Leadership

- Promotions are based on a member's performance, loyalty, leadership skills, and overall contribution to the organization.
- The president makes all decisions on promotions and demotions.

7. Use of Lab Resources

- Lab equipment, tools, and materials must be utilized with caution and responsibility. Nobody can take any equipment for personal use.
- Any damage or loss must be reported immediately to the concerned authority.

8. Inclusivity & Non-Discrimination

- ASL maintains a zero-tolerance policy toward discrimination based on department, batch, gender, or background.

9. Resignation & Membership Status

- Members wishing to leave ASL should submit a formal notice to their wing executive.
- Inactive members may be removed after review.

10. Authority, Amendments & Updates

- The President of Alpha Science Lab (ASL) is the supreme authority. All appointments, removals, and interpretations are subject to the President's decision.
- ASL president reserves the right to update, correct, revise, or adjust these rules when necessary.
- Members will be notified of any changes.

Executive Members – Roles & Responsibilities

Executive Members act as the operational backbone of each wing.

1. Leadership & Coordination

- Assist the Wing Head in planning and executing wing activities.
- Guide and supervise General Members.

2. Accountability

- Ensure assigned tasks are completed on time.
- Maintain records of wing activities and progress.

3. Communication

- Serve as a bridge between Wing Head and General Members.
- Communicate updates, schedules, and instructions clearly.

4. Conduct & Ethics

- Maintain professionalism and visible discipline.
- Avoid favoritism, misuse of authority, or conflict of interest.

I, _____, of _____ Department, _____ Session, Roll No. _____, Reg No. _____, hereby acknowledge that I have read and understood the Rules & Regulations, Code of Conduct, and Confidentiality Policy of Alpha Science Lab (ASL).
